

Rescue Operation Report

This document serves as the official report of the rescue operation conducted for the affected community. It records the key information, emergency context, and actions taken to ensure accountability, transparency, and reference for future disaster response efforts.

Community & Terminal Information

Neighborhood ID	N-01
Focal Person's Name	Rosalyn Dela Cruz
Focal Person's Address	Paraiso Rd, 1400
Focal Person's Contact Number	09687342038

Emergency Context

Emergency ID	EMERGENCY-01
Current Situation / Water Level	Waist-level inside most houses Chest-deep near riverbank Some families moved to 2nd floors Few climbing rooftops (water still rising)
Urgency of Evacuation	Families on 2nd floors still safe for now One-story houses = urgent evacuation needed Rising water (fast) → risk of entrapment
Hazards Present	Live wires hanging near barangay hall Leaning electric posts Strong current along main road near creek (impassable) Small landslide blocking Zone 5 alley (river path only access)
Accessibility	Rescue trucks can reach up to Zone 2 Beyond Zone 2 = boats only Abandoned motorcycles/pedicabs on roads
Resource Needs	Rescue: trapped households Relief: evacuees at covered court haven't eaten since morning Medical: 2 evacuees (1 with asthma, 1 with high fever)
Other Information	N/A
Time of Rescue	3:45 AM, Thursday
Alert Type	Critical

Rescue Completion Details

Rescue Completion Time	1:09:46
No. of Personnel Deployed	12
Resources Used	12 Rescue Boats 48 Rescue Personnel 200 Life Vests 15 First Aid Kits 25 Radios 6 Emergency Vehicles
Actions Taken	Removed fallen tree blocking road access Rescued stranded residents from flooded homes Evacuated children, elderly, and PWDs to safe shelter Cleared debris to reopen evacuation routes